

Interested in doing a FREE University Course in your local library? No Essays, No Exams.

Local History
Looking at the history of your local area

Economy & us
Where does Money come from? Where does it Go?

Find out about the Real Economy

1 morning per week for 16 weeks Weds. 10am-
12.30 in Ballyfermot Library.
Communiversality

Politics, Power & People
Who rules who?
How political systems work.

Introduction to Philosophy.
The love of wisdom
and the quest for a greater understanding.

Maynooth University in association with Dublin City Public Libraries and Ballyfermot Partnership are looking for participants for new university level courses.
No exams, no essays, curiosity and willingness to learn are all that's needed.

Places are limited and priority will be given to Long Term Unemployed and People supported under the Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme.

If you are interested come along to our information and taster workshop on Weds. 5 Oct. 10.00 -12.00 in Ballyfermot Library.

For more information please contact Declan Markey on 01 6235612
Email: dmarkey@ballyfermotpartnership.ie

The Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme (SICAP) 2015-2017 is funded by the Irish Government and co-funded by the European Social Fund and includes a special allocation under the Youth Employment Initiative.